

SUMMER TERM 2018

PT 765

CREATION CARE AND THE FAITH COMMUNITY: A GRASSROOTS RESPONSE

PT 765 is a practical introduction to earth care and environmental justice with the objective to define the role of the Black faith community in the global movement to ensure all people have clean air to breathe, fresh drinkable water, and access to healthy foods.

This course will introduce students to grassroots organizing, environmental advocacy, and strategic planning.
